NOTICE ON THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

Transfer of performing loans and deposits portfolio from Cyprus Development Bank Public Company Limited to Bank of Cyprus Public Company Limited

Publication date: 20 October 2026

We wish to inform you, as already announced, that Bank of Cyprus Public Company Ltd ("Bank of Cyprus") and Cyprus Development Bank Public Company Limited ("cdbbank") entered into a Business Transfer Agreement on 26 March 2026 for the acquisition by Bank of Cyprus of a portfolio of performing loans and deposits and certain other assets and liabilities of cdbbank (the "Transfer"). In the context of the Transfer, personal data concerning you and contained in the relevant bank records have been transferred or will be transferred from the cdbbank to Bank of Cyprus.

The purpose of this notice is to provide you with information regarding the processing of your personal data by Bank of Cyprus in the context of the Transfer and following its completion. No action or consent is required on your part in relation to this notice.

1. Who is this notice addressed to?

This notice is addressed to physical persons whose personal data is included in the records being transferred to Bank of Cyprus and who are connected, in any capacity, with the transferred loans, deposit accounts or other assets or liabilities.

These persons include:

- beneficiaries or co-beneficiaries of accounts or deposits;
- borrowers or co-borrowers,
- guarantors or providers of other collateral or pledge;
- beneficiaries of letters of guarantee,
- authorized signatories,
- representatives or agents,
- directors, shareholders or beneficial owners of legal persons, or
- other persons connected with a transferred account, credit facility, security or other banking relationship.

2. Who is the controller of your personal data?

As of 20 October 2026, Bank of Cyprus acts as the controller of the personal data received from cdbbank in the context of the Transfer.

For matters relating to the processing of your personal data, you may contact the Data Protection Officer of Bank of Cyprus by email at dpo@bankofcyprus.com or by post at 97 Kyrenias Avenue, P.O. Box 21472, 2113 Aglantzia, Nicosia, Cyprus.

3. How did we obtain your personal data?

Bank of Cyprus obtained your personal data from cdbbank, which had collected it in the context of its relationship with you or with the customer, debtor or other person with whom you are associated.

4. Categories of personal data

Depending on the capacity in which you are connected with the assets and liabilities subject to the Transfer, the personal data concerning you may include:

- identification and contact details (such as full name, address, contact details, identification details, date and place of birth and marital status);
- account, deposit, payment and transaction details (such as account numbers, balances and transaction history);
- details of loans, credit facilities and repayment history (such as financing amounts and terms, amounts due and repayment history);
- details of collateral, guarantees, pledges and mortgages (such as details of guarantors or other security providers, details of immovable or other property provided as collateral and details of its value);
- financial and credit data (such as income, assets, liabilities and creditworthiness);
- tax information (such as tax residence and tax identification number);
- information relating to your connection with a legal person that is a customer or collateral provider (such as your status as a director, shareholder, beneficial owner, representative or authorized signatory);
- correspondence and other information related to your banking relationship with cdbbank (such as emails and instructions related to your banking relationship), and
- data collected for due diligence purposes and compliance with anti-money laundering obligations (such as customer identification information and information collected in the course of checks conducted for the prevention and detection of money laundering).

5. Purposes and legal bases of processing

In the context of the Transfer, Bank of Cyprus will process the personal data received or to be received from cdbbank to the extent necessary for the completion and implementation of the Transfer, including the receipt of the relevant files and data, their integration into the systems and records of Bank of Cyprus and the smooth transition and continuation of the administration of the transferred loans, deposit accounts and other assets and liabilities subject to the Transfer.

This processing is carried out, as the case may be, for Bank of Cyprus' compliance with its legal and regulatory obligations and/or to serve the legitimate interests of Bank of Cyprus or third parties in relation to the completion and implementation of the Transfer, provided that, in the latter case, your interests or fundamental rights and freedoms do not prevail.

In addition to the processing carried out specifically in the context of the Transfer, Bank of Cyprus will process your personal data, depending on your relationship with Bank of Cyprus and the relevant circumstances, for the purposes and on the legal bases described in the general Privacy Statement of Bank of Cyprus, which is available on the website of Bank of Cyprus (Home Page > Privacy Statement).

6. Further information about the processing of your personal data

This notice should be read together with the general Privacy Statement of Bank of Cyprus, available on the website of Bank of Cyprus (Home Page > Privacy Statement).

The general Privacy Statement provides further information regarding:

- the recipients or categories of recipients to whom your data may be disclosed;
- any transfers of personal data outside the European Economic Area and the related safeguards;
- the retention period of personal data;
- any automated decision-making and profiling;
- your rights as a data subject and how to exercise them, and
- your right to lodge a complaint with the Commissioner for Personal Data Protection.
