(a) The Bank may debit the Card Account with the amounts of all Transactions and any other liabilities of the Cardholder with respect to the use of the Card.

Unless otherwise provided in these Cards Terms and Conditions, the holder of the Card Account shall be liable to pay to the Bank all amounts debited to the Card Account provided that the Cardholder had authorized the Transaction in accordance with these Cards Terms and Conditions.

(b) In the event of a debit balance of the prepaid Card Account, the Cardholder must repay the full balance due as detailed in the prepaid Card statement. On any debit balance an interest charge equal to a fixed rate of interest as mentioned in the Table of Commissions and Charges of the Bank under the section 'Cards', is payable to the Bank on that amount, calculated (both before and after any Court judgment) on a daily basis from the date of the debiting of the Transaction amount to the prepaid Card Account. The Bank has the right to amend the aforementioned interest in accordance to paragraph 13.

In addition, the Bank will be entitled to debit the Card Account with charges and expenses on the unpaid balance. Interest and any fees, commissions and charges will be capitalized on 30 June and 31 December of each year, if not paid.

(c) Any Transaction amount made in a currency other than the Euro, will be converted by VISA into Euro, at an exchange rate set by the relevant Cards organization as obtained from customary data sources, and which may be provided or made available to the Cardholder upon request. If the currency of the Card Account is other than the Euro, and the Transaction is made in a currency other than that of the Card Account, then the Bank will convert the amount from the Euro to the currency of the Card Account, at the current exchange rate set by the Bank as obtained from customary data sources, and which may be provided or made available to the Cardholder upon request at the Bank's branches or be obtained from the Bank's website at www.bankofcyprus.com. The total currency conversion charges which apply from time to time to cross-border Card-based transactions which are made from one country in the European Economic Area (EEA) to another, where conversion will take place from the currency of a non-euro country in the EEA to euro, are available for information and comparison purposes on the Bank's website at www.bankofcyprus.com. These charges are expressed as a percentage mark-up over the latest available euro foreign exchange reference rates issued by the European Central Bank (ECB). These charges are indicative and are updated regularly using recently published ECB reference exchange rates and the rates of the card schemes (Visa or Mastercard, as the case may be). However, please be aware that the rates and percentage mark-ups displayed on the Bank's website may differ from the actual currency conversion charge applied to the Cardholder's payment, because:

- ECB, Visa and Mastercard rates and percentage mark-ups may change between updates to the charges.
- Visa and Mastercard convert transactions into euro using the exchange rate applicable on the day the transaction is processed. This processing date may be different to the day that the Cardholder selects as the day of payment on the Bank's website and/or on which the Cardholder makes the payment. This means that the actual rate and percentage mark-up applied could be higher or lower than the rate and mark-up provided in the indicative table on the Bank's website, with respect to the day of payment that the Cardholder had selected on the website.

The Bank shall be entitled to exercise its rights under this paragraph in one or more of the following cases:

- in the event the Card Account is in arrears and/or runs in excess of the limits of the balance available in the Card Account and/or

The Bank shall notify the Cardholder promptly after it exercises any of its rights under this paragraph.

(d) The Cardholder shall be liable for any loss, damage, expense or cost that the Bank determines it has suffered as a result of any breach of the Agreement by the Cardholder.

(e) The Card Account will only be credited with a refund in respect of a Transaction if the Bank has received a refund voucher or any other verification acceptable by the Bank.

(f) The Bank shall not be in any way responsible if a Card is not accepted or honored by the Merchant. Further, any dispute between the Cardholder and the Merchant or any third party, concerning any Transaction shall not in any way affect the Cardholder's liability to pay to the Bank any debt arising out of and/or connected with such Transaction and no claim or counter claim by the Cardholder against any Merchant or third party shall be a defense or counterclaim against the Bank.

6. CARD ACCOUNT STATEMENT

(a) The prepaid Card Account statements, which show the executed Transactions and/or the crediting and/or the debiting of the prepaid Card Account, will be provided to the holder of the prepaid Card Account free of charge once a month:

Interest and any charges, where applicable, will continue to accrue on the balance outstanding until full repayment.

(e) The Bank has the right to keep the abovementioned Card Account open for a period of at least six (6) months from the date of return of the Card to the Bank.
