

Bank of Cyprus named “Best Private Bank Cyprus 2026” by Global Banking & Finance Awards for the 4th consecutive year

Bank of Cyprus has once again been named “Best Private Bank Cyprus 2026” as part of the Global Banking & Finance Awards, organized by the reputable magazine Global Banking & Finance Review. This distinction highlights the Bank’s excellence in the field of Private and Affluent Banking and reflects its commitment to providing personalized and innovative financial solutions.

The award highlights Bank of Cyprus’ dedication to offering high-level services to high-net-worth individuals through a comprehensive range of banking and investment products and services. At the heart of this success lies the PriviledGE value proposition, designed to meet the unique demands and dynamism of clients by offering personalized relationship management, exclusive investment solutions, and unique lifestyle privileges that elevate the banking experience.

Christos M. Ioannou, Head of Private & Affluent Banking at Bank of Cyprus, commented: “Bank of Cyprus’ leading position requires us to remain committed to delivering services that exceed established standards. This award reflects our ongoing effort to provide top-tier service, innovative investment strategies, and a comprehensive, personalized experience for our clients. A key tool for us is PriviledGE, which we continue to develop and enhance, ensuring we offer high value-added services fully tailored to our clients’ goals and expectations. This allows us to remain at the top and be the most trusted financial institution in Cyprus.”

The Global Banking & Finance Awards annually recognize the world’s leading financial institutions, evaluating their outstanding performance, innovation, and leadership in a rapidly changing environment. For Bank of Cyprus, this recognition serves as motivation to further strengthen its client-centric philosophy and adopt new technologies that will shape the future of Private and Affluent Banking in Cyprus.
