Bank of Cyprus was named the Best Private Bank in Cyprus for 2018
by the Global Finance magazine

The Bank of Cyprus was named Best Private Bank in Cyprus for 2018, for the third time, by the internationally reputable magazine Global Finance. The magazine recently announced its annual 'World's Best Private Banks Awards for 2018', recognising banks offering outstanding services in a variety of categories in Private Banking.

The "Best Bank for Private Banking" award provides an independent validation of those Banks that offer the best experience, best value and highest level of customer service.

The Global Finance magazine classifies the Bank of Cyprus among the best financial institutions offering Private Banking services.

The award is a testament to the high-quality of the services offered by the Private Banking Units of the Bank of Cyprus, in Nicosia, Limassol and Larnaca. It also confirms the successful strategy of the Bank as regards the offering of bespoke solutions and integrated products and services in the wider area of wealth management.

This recognition by Global Finance reaffirms the Bank's ability to operate successfully in global competitive environment and to successfully respond to its clients' changing financial needs.
