

Bank of Cyprus awarded “Best Private Bank Cyprus 2025”

by Global Banking & Finance Review

Bank of Cyprus has been awarded the prestigious title of “Best Private Bank Cyprus 2025” by Global Banking & Finance Review magazine, reaffirming its position as the country’s leading financial institution. The recognition highlights the Bank’s exceptional Private and Affluent banking services as well as its commitment to delivering tailored wealth management solutions that meet the investment and banking needs of high-net-worth and affluent individuals.

The award reflects Bank of Cyprus’ ongoing dedication to excellence in Private Banking, with a strong emphasis on personalized service, tailored financial solutions, and expert advisory support. The Bank’s new Value Proposition PriviEDGE, designed to cater to the advanced needs of Private & Affluent clients, was a key factor in this achievement. The service offers dedicated relationship management, unique perks and lifestyle benefits. PriviEDGE members benefit from a seamless banking experience as well as expert advice linked to their individual financial goals.

Commenting on the award, Christos M. Ioannou, Head of Private and Affluent Banking at Bank of Cyprus, stated: “We are honored to be recognized as the Best Private Bank in Cyprus for 2025. This award reflects our unwavering commitment to providing our clients with exceptional and upgraded banking services, tailored investment solutions, and a highly personalized service approach. Through the PriviEDGE Value Proposition, we continue to enhance our offerings, ensuring that our clients receive the highest level of expertise and support in managing their wealth.”

The Global Banking & Finance Review Awards recognize institutions worldwide for their leadership, expertise, and outstanding performance in the financial sector. Bank of Cyprus’ latest accolade underscores its strong market position and continuous drive to exceed client expectations.
