

Bank of Cyprus – Best Domestic Private Banking for 7th years in Cyprus at the Euromoney Awards 2023

For seventh time, Bank of Cyprus has been named Best Bank for Private Banking in Cyprus for 2023 - an accolade that demonstrates the comparative advantage it holds in the Cypriot banking system.

Euromoney, the reputable financial magazine, handed the award to Bank of Cyprus at the 2023 Global Private Banking Awards. During the award process, the magazine recognised the quality of the products and services which Bank of Cyprus offers to the customers.

Important recognition of novel tools

The award represents an important acknowledgment of the efforts underway to modernise and develop new innovative tools for Private Banking clients. At the same time, Bank of Cyprus - the largest financial organisation in Cyprus - remains committed to supporting the Cypriot economy.

Athena Shipilli Tsingi, Director Wealth Services at Bank of Cyprus, had this to say:

“It is with great honor that we accept the award for the Best Domestic Private Bank in Cyprus for 2023 by the esteemed publication Euromoney magazine. At Bank of Cyprus, we take immense pride in supporting the growth and development of the domestic market providing our customers with the highest level of services. As the “Best Domestic Private Bank in Cyprus”, we remain committed to continue providing personalized and tailored wealth solutions that will enable our customers to achieve their financial goals and meet their unique needs. We look forward to serving our customers with the same level of dedication and excellence that has eared us this recognition”.
