

Michalis Spanos

Michalis Spanos, a former director of the Central Bank of Cyprus, is a Managing Director of M.S. Business Power Ltd, providing consultancy services on Strategic and Business Development (since 2008); non-executive Chairman of Lanitis Bros Ltd (since 2008); founding Chairman of Green Dot (Cyprus) Public Co Ltd (since 2004); and member of the Board of Directors of CCI, Coca-Cola Eurasia (since 2012). Mr. Spanos worked at Lanitis Bros Ltd from 1981 to 2008 as Marketing Manager, General Manager and Managing Director. Between 2005 and 2009, Mr. Spanos served as Vice-Chairman of the Board of the Cyprus International Institute (Republic of Cyprus and Harvard School of Public Health). Mr. Spanos also served on other Boards, such as Heineken-Lanitis Cyprus Ltd (2005-2007), Lumiere TV Public Ltd (2000-2012), A. Petsas & Sons Public Ltd (2000-2007) and CypriaLife Insurance Ltd (1995-2000). Mr. Spanos was appointed to the Central Bank of Cyprus Board in May 2013, of which he is a former director.

Mr. Spanos holds a Master's degree in economics from North Carolina State University.